

Invitation for poster presentation

The DEGUWA Annual Conference on Underwater Archaeology

IN POSEIDON'S REALM XXII

will be held in cooperation with Verein zur Förderung der Unterwasserarchäologie e.V.

FUWA

at the

RheinMoselCampus of the Koblenz University of Applied Sciences

March 17-19, 2017.

The topic will be

"We're all in the same boat – the social importance of ships, rafts and ferries"

Posters discussing topics of sociology and cultural history of the nautical life through all periods and regions are as welcome as those on issues relating to communication allowed by watercraft to cross rivers, lakes and seas including its effects. You may report on new results of all kinds of field and basic studies or present theoretical discussions of old and new problems. Furthermore, reports on other kinds of new findings and on results from nautical and freshwater archaeology and cultural history – not to forget the latest developments of methodology and technology – will gladly be accepted.

The size of posters should be DIN A0.

You are kindly invited to submit titles and abstracts of up to 250 words (including 2 figures) to:

mail@deguwa.org

Please, send your application no later than 15 February, 2017

For further information see www.deguwa.org

Please, send your application as early as possible.

Associates:

- DEGUWA
- Verein zur Förderung der Unterwasserarchäologie e.V. FUWA
- University Koblenz-Landau

Organizing Committee:

- Agnes Malecha (DEGUWA)
- Christa Siepenkötter (FUWA)
- Wolfgang Titius (FUWA)
- Gabriele Weiler (Universität Koblenz-Landau)
- Peter Winterstein (DEGUWA, Koordination)