

IN POSEIDON'S REALM XXIII

International Conference on Underwater Archaeology
The annual meeting of DEGUWA e.V. on Underwater Archaeology

on the topic of

Waters as a Resource

will be held in close cooperation with the SFB/CRC 1070 ResourceCultures
under the patronage of President Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Bernd Engler
15th - 18th March 2018 at Eberhard Karls Universität, Tübingen.

Preview

Wednesday March 14th, 2018

09:00 – 17:00 h

Seminar: Learning QGIS

Location: NN

Limited of 15 participants

Thursday March 15th, 2018

10:00 h

Venue: Castle Hohentübingen

Guided tour through the site

Meeting Point: NN

Limited of 50 participants

12:00 – 14:00 h

Common Lunch

Location: NN

(paid by each participant)

14:00 h

Venue: Castle Hohentübingen

Museum (MUT)

Guided tour through the highlights (two groups)

Meeting Point: NN

Limited of 50 participants

Afterwards individual visiting of the exhibitions

18:00 h

Visiting a Tübingen winery rich in tradition

(paid by each participant)

Location: NN

Friday March 16th, 2018

10:00 h

Excursion “The Neckar as Resource”

Meeting Point: NN

12:00 h

Common Lunch

Location: NN

(paid by each participant)

15:00 h

2 hours guided tour of the Old City of Tübingen in English and German

Limited of 50 participants

Meeting point: NN

17:00 h

Venue: Townhall, Am Markt 1, 72070 Tübingen

Reception by the Lord Major of the City Tübingen Mr. Boris Palmer

18:00 – 19:00 h

Venue: “Old Aula” or Castle Hohentübingen

Registration

19:00 h:

Opening poster presentation and afterwards

Come Together with drinks and snacks

Saturday March 17th, 2018

Venue: “Old Aula”, Münzgasse 30, 72070 Tübingen

08:00 – 09:00 h

Registration

09:15 – 17:20 h

Conference Session I: Presentations

20:00 h

The Public Festive Evening Lecture

NN

Afterwards reception by the event partners.

Sunday, March 18th, 2018

Venue: “Old Aula”, Münzgasse 30, 72070 Tübingen

Conference Session II: Presentations

09:00 - 16:20 h

16:20 h

Final discussion

Farewell words